SELICHOT

Introductory address by Rabbi Stuart Altshuler followed by Choral service led by Cantor Paul Heller and the Professional Belsize Square Choir Conducted by Dr. Benjamin Wolf and accompanied by Mike Cayton

The Saturday before Rosh Hashana we meet for a Selichot program in order to begin to spiritually prepare for the coming High Holy Days. At 8:00 pm on Saturday, Sept. 24, following the lovely ritual of havdalah to usher out the Sabbath we will join together in hall for a scrumptious dinner reception and address by Rabbi Altshuler to encourage us all to reflect on our own guiding values as the New Year begins. The Selichot service (penitential prayers) will begin at 10:00 pm. The lateness of the hour adds to the mood of quiet and introspection that is central to this observance.

Selichot Service

With an introductory address by Rabbi Stuart Altshuler and dinner followed by the Choral service

It is customary to recite penitential prayers called Selichot beginning on the Saturday night before Rosh Hashana
